Dental Hygiene Term Position

The School of Dental Hygiene, Faculty of Dentistry, Dalhousie University, is seeking applications for a three-year limited-term dental hygiene educator position at the rank of instructor, commencing September 1, 2017.

Responsibilities will include didactic, pre-clinical, and clinical teaching in all aspects of the School of Dental Hygiene programs, and those aspects that are integrated with the Dentistry programs. Additional expectations include: participation in collaborative research, continuing education, Faculty committees, and administrative duties.

Applicants must be eligible for licensure as a registered dental hygienist in Nova Scotia and hold a Master’s degree.

Candidates are expected to have considerable teaching experience with dental hygiene students. Salary will be commensurate with the successful candidate’s qualifications, experience and achievements.

Dalhousie University is one of Canada’s leading teaching and research universities with four professional faculties, a Faculty of Graduate Studies and a diverse complement of graduate programs. Inter-faculty collaborative and interactive research is encouraged, as is cooperation in teaching. Dalhousie University inspires students, faculty, staff and alumni to make significant contributions regionally, nationally, and to the world.

Dalhousie University is located in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada. Halifax is a vibrant, capital city and is the business, academic, and medical centre for Canada’s east coast.

The deadline for applications is July 21st, 2017.

Applicants should submit a letter of application and a current Curriculum Vitae directly to:
