LIMITED-TERM APPOINTMENT (100%)
Lecturer/Assistant Professor in Acting
Term: August 1, 2018 to May 31, 2019 (10 months)

The Fountain School of Performing Arts (FSPA) at Dalhousie University invites applications for a ten-month 100% full-time limited-term appointment, at the rank of Lecturer/Assistant Professor in Theatre (Acting Studies), commencing August 1, 2018. The position is subject to budgetary approval.

The successful candidate will be responsible for teaching acting classes in a four-year program. Ability to teach across the curriculum - through the first and final years - is essential. Experience in teaching Shakespeare, Period and Style, Mask, and Clown would all be considered assets.

The qualifications required for this position are MA, MFA or equivalent degree and substantial theatre experience with a particular emphasis on acting and directing. Evidence of effective teaching ability and experience at a post-secondary level is required.

Applications, including a curriculum vitae, a statement of artistic and teaching interests and philosophies, three confidential letters of reference (forwarded separately from the referees), evidence of teaching effectiveness (formal course evaluations), as well as a completed Self-Identification Questionnaire (available at www.dal.ca/becounted/selfid), should be sent in hard copy by the application deadline to:
