

School of Health Administration, Faculty of Health
Limited Term Appointment - full-time (2 years) at the rank of Assistant Professor

Dalhousie University is Atlantic Canada's leading research-intensive university and a driver of the region's intellectual, social and economic development. Located in the heart of Halifax, Nova Scotia, with an Agricultural Campus in Truro/Bible Hill, Dalhousie is a truly national and international university, with more than half of their 18,800 students coming from outside of the province. Their 6,000 faculty and staff foster a vibrant, purpose-driven community, that's celebrating 200 years of academic excellence in 2018.

The School of Health Administration, offering internationally recognized graduate and online undergraduate programs, is active in the community and well connected to local and national health systems. In-depth onsite education, and flexible online programs are characterized by strong partnerships, excellent residency placements and distinguished faculty.

Reporting to the Dean of the Faculty of Health through the Director of the School of Health Administration, the successful candidate will have an MHA, MPA or related degree, PhD preferred with teaching experience at the university level, both graduate and undergraduate (3 years or more preferred). Expertise in, and proven ability to teach across multiple content areas such as health economics, leadership and strategic planning, project management, healthcare policy, health system analysis and evaluation, and performance management is required. Experience with online teaching technology, such as Brightspace, is required, as is a demonstrated ability to contribute to course development and delivery of health administration curricula.

The position is to commence July 1, 2019. Applications will be accepted until January 1, 2019. Application packages should include a letter of interest, a curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching experience and teaching philosophy, a completed self-identification questionnaire (available at www.dal.ca/becounted/selfid) and contact information for three references. Application packages should be emailed, marked confidential and referencing LTA position, to:
