LIMITED-TERM APPOINTMENT (100%)
Lecturer/Assistant Professor, Music (Applied Voice)

Term: August 1, 2019 to May 31, 2020 (10 months)

The Fountain School of Performing Arts (FSPA) at Dalhousie University invites applications for two ten-month limited-term appointments in Applied Voice, at the rank of Lecturer/Assistant Professor, commencing August 1, 2019. The positions are subject to budgetary approval.

The two successful candidates’ combined duties may include, but are not limited to: individual teaching of undergraduate voice students; class teaching of Vocal Pedagogy, Vocal Literature, and Voice Clinic for Actors; musical preparation for Dal Opera; sharing in departmental responsibilities, and performing in department events including the Faculty Chamber Series.

The minimum qualifications required for each position are a Master’s degree in vocal performance, vocal pedagogy, or equivalent. Significant professional experience as a singing artist and evidence of effective teaching at the post-secondary level are also required.

Applications, including a curriculum vitae, a statement of artistic and teaching interests and philosophies, three confidential letters of reference (forwarded separately from the referees), a recent performance recording in a variety of repertoire, and evidence of teaching effectiveness (formal course evaluations), as well as a completed Self-Identification Questionnaire (available at www.dal.ca/becounted/selfid) should be sent in hard copy by the application deadline to:

Dr. Jacqueline Warwick, Director
Fountain School of Performing Arts
#514 – 6101 University Avenue
Dalhousie Arts Centre
Dalhousie University
Halifax, Nova Scotia B3H 4R2
Email: fspajobs@dal.ca

The deadline for applications is April 27, 2019.